

Business & Work Ethics

DATE: SATURDAY OCTOBER 14, 2017

TIME: 6.30 PM - 9.00 PM

CPE HOURS: 2 HRS.

VENUE: GRAND HYATT HOTEL

FEES: 15 JOD FOR JAMA & IMA MEMBERS; 30 JOD FOR NON - MEMBERS

Workshop Outline:

- Ethics versus the Law
- Common Ethical Dilemmas
- Ethical Decision-Making
- Conflict of Interest
- The Gift Policy
- The Entertainment Policy
- Payments to suppliers and Customers
- Payments, Gifts, Entertainment to Government Officials
- Restricted Communications
- Fraud, other wrong doing and how to report them.
- Whistleblowing, whistle blower protection
- Anti-Retaliation Prohibitions

For Reservation:

LOG INTO: <http://jama.jo/Events.aspx>

Or Email: info@jama.jo

Business & Work Ethics

About the Expert:

Ala' A. Abu Naba'a
*Group Head of Internal Audit
&
Corporate Excellence*

Mr. Abu Naba'a holds Master degree in Accounting and professional certification designations from USA & UK in External and Internal Auditing, Governance, Internal Controls, and Risk Management. He currently works as Group Head of Audit & Corporate Excellence at an International Conglomerate Group of Companies. During his 19 years of experience, he worked in Finance Management, Internal and External Auditing in Jordan, KSA, and Kuwait in one of the big 4, investment banking, contracting, and manufacturing sectors. He participated in many Internal Controls and Corporate Governance consulting projects .

Mr. Abu Naba'a is a CPA, CMA and CIA trainer, and spoke in many professional conferences, seminars, and workshops in many Arab countries. Mr. Abu Naba'a participated in establishing Jordan Internal Audit Association, and currently participating in establishing Internal Auditors Association in Kuwait (IIA-Kuwait).

For Reservation:

LOG INTO: <http://jama.jo/Events.aspx>

Or Email: info@jama.jo